• Public Comment

- Mike Mason – Email read aloud. Will be forwarded to Community Development Dept, Rob Pyzel or Andrew Pascans.
- John Gavin – He owns ranch on River Road. His ranch is serviced by the Cardelli Ditch. He feels there are inconsistencies with the stormwater management. He has a cooperative agreement with the county to help get the ditch cleaned, paid 60/40 - County/Ranchers respectively.
- George Morse – User of Cardelli ditch. He wants to know what recourse he has when the stormwater comes on his land from the rest of the county. He feels that the Cardelli ditch is used by the county and is not taken care of by the county. Too much lip service and nothing done.
- William Kennedy – 18 inches of water on his land. Every time it rains, the stormwater comes to his land and he is out battling the runoff, or it will take his home.
