6.a. For Presentation Only: Recognize Louis Cariola, Lyon County Senior Planner, for passing the exam to become a Certified Floodplain Manager.

Community Development Director Andrew Haskin recognized Louis Cariola for passing the exam to become a Certified Floodplain Manager. He gave a review of the importance of the achievement and how Louis acquired a grant for funding.

Louis Carioala thanked the Board and Andrew Haskin.

County Manager Jeff Page recognized Daphne Hooper for her service to the City of Fernley and Lyon County. He gave an overview of her achievements and Comm. Jacobson was given an award to deliver to her at a later date. She was unable to attend today in person.

Daphne Hooper thanked the Commissioners and gave her gratitude for being able to give service to the communities. She reported on her new position at the University of Nevada Reno.

The Commissioners thanked her and gave their congratulations in her future endeavors.

7. Commissioners/County Manager reports

Comm. Jacobson thanked Erin Lopez for Administrative Assistants day. He thanked the men and women serving as firefighters for International Fire Fighters Day. He attended the Fernley City Council meeting and attended the Jayme King Memorial event. He gave his condolences to Jack Ellington's family. He stated another group of kids have just completed NDOW and have their hunter's education cards and he hopes they do well in the draw for big game.

Comm. Keller agreed with Comm. Jacobson comments.

Comm. Gray stated May is Law Enforcement Appreciation Month, there is a memorial today in Carson City, and they are putting Deputy King's name on the memorial. Remember your law enforcement members who put their lives on the line for us every day. The Stagecoach Advisory Board held their first meeting last night.

Comm. Henderson attended the Mound House Advisory Board. He stated they are upset over the possibility of losing their ARPA funding for the Community Center. The Dayton Valley Advisory Board expressed frustration with their item on their agenda and not having enough information provided to them or enough staff to present. Jeff Page's training needs to extend to the advisory boards as well.

Comm. Hockaday also attended the Mound House Advisory Board meeting. They were all crammed in a very small space and obviously the Board needs to look at getting them a bigger and better place to hold their meetings. He attended the Smith Valley Advisory Board and they discussed the Hudbay Mining
